Contributors and their contribution:

Contributors are people who helped you in your assignment, for example by pointing out relevant course material, giving your ideas on how to approach the assignment, giving you feedback on your work. Note that you may be accused of collusion if you receive help from contributors and do not acknowledge it here.

Students should make sure that all submitted work is their own. Plagiarism is a form of dishonest practice. Plagiarism is defined as copying or paraphrasing another's work, whether intentionally or otherwise, and presenting it as one's own.

Any student found responsible for dishonest practice in any piece of work submitted for assessment shall be subject to the University's dishonest practice regulations which may result in various penalties, including forfeiture of marks for the piece of work submitted, a zero grade for the paper or, in extreme cases, exclusion from the University.

In submitting this form I/we declare that; I/we have read and understand the statement on academic integrity on the University of Otago website at <https://www.otago.ac.nz/study/academicintegrity> and confirm that I/we have read, understood and endorsed the entire contents of this assignment.
